From the Producer:

Hi! And welcome to the 2015 Fall Short Show! It's our pleasure to welcome you into our audience and show you the work that we have put together over the last 3 months. We are lucky enough to present 10 short plays this year, the largest number we have ever taken on by far. That being said, our show this semester is truly a marathon, not a sprint. The 10 plays that we have produced are all unique, awe-inspiring, and, most importantly, created from the efforts of some truly incredible students. But before we get started, there are some thank you's in order! Firstly, a huge thanks to the Honors College for the continued use of the space, and to the Honors Student Governing Board for their financial and administrative support in everything we do. Thank you to my family for the storage of our massive stage for 50 weeks of the year and for being the theater parents to us that you have always been to me. Thank you so much to my fellow officers for keeping my head above water even on the rockiest of days, and to our wonderful directors for taking each and every one of these shows and making them their own. Thank you to the largest, most inspiring cast and crew we have ever had on this stage. Their attitude, talent, and passion for what we do has surpassed all of my expectations, and I am so proud of what we have to put on the stage this semester. Finally, thank you to each and every one of you. We couldn't do what we do without your smiling faces, and our audiences of late have grown not only in size but in spirit. You make our love for the stage mean something. And I know I speak for every one of our members when I say that we appreciate it. So, with that, grab a snack from the library to your left, take a trip to the bathroom down the hall, and strap in for a night of laughter, tears, and college students' humor. Enjoy the show!
